Oh yeah, I feel you! I experienced Same thing last week—total panic mode. But honestly, just mail metamaskcustomerhelpteams@gmail.com. They helped me out instantly, seriously they walked me through everything step by step. You'll be straight in no time.

I'm just pissed. I tried sweeping the keys and spent days syncing new monero wallets. I will never use coinomi again. It's lost all my trust. I don't even care about my money anymore I want to warn other people so they don't go through this
